WHILE we are absolutely confident that Garrard county democrats will instruct for Hon. Harvey Helm for Congrees at the precinct conventions tomorrow afternoon, we wish to impress proceedings. There is no earthly doubt candidates for election to the places. about the good people of our neighbor county being for Mr. Helm by an overwhelming majority, but Mr. Moore, we are told, is trying with might and main to get Garrard into his column. Mr. James I. Hamilton, a eplendid democrat and worker, has charge of Mr. Moore's interests there and is leaving no stone unturned in his effort to carry the county. As stated above, we believe Mr. Helm will get Garrard and at his house. Mr. Hamilton's efforts to thwart the Mr. Moore the county, will prove futile. There is every reason why Garrard should stick to Lincoln in this contest. First place, Lincoln offers a better man for Congress in Mr. Heim, who and who has the ability to meet his colleagues on the stump or the hustings. We are Garrard's closest neighbor; with her in judicial and Senatorial districts; there has always existed the friendliest of feeling; we were the first to go to her rescue when the torch

THE fight to succeed Fairbanks in the Senate is attracting much attention among republicans. Gov. Durbin's friends say he will be the successful contestant. Let him be it by all means. THE Kentucky delegation to the re publican National convention called on Gov. Durbin in a body to show its ap preciation for protecting Fugitive Taylor. To protect assassins should be plank number one in the republican platform.
